

MORNING APPEAL.

TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 1880

THE GAZETTE "GOES UP."

The Gazette comes squarely to the front and answers our question regarding Sharon as follows:

The Carson Appeal has established a catechism of its own, and is making the rest of us stand up and answer. Thursday it says: "If it is not an impertinent question, we would like to ask the Gold Hill News to designate its choice for United States Senator out of all the candidates before the people."

Yesterday morning it was the Gazette's turn and the conundrum is:

"We ask the Gazette the plain question: Would you support Sharon for nothing? And further, do you know of any paper in the State that would?"

Frankly, we would not; nor would we do it for hire. We do not believe there is any reason in the world to be advanced in favor of Mr. Sharon, and we cannot conceive of any one supporting him for reelection except on a simon pure coin basis. We want to see Senator Sharon defeated, but we are perfectly willing to have him take his place among the candidates. We don't want to see him come into the primaries as he did before, and buy his delegations into the conventions, and we imagine the Appeal's plan would tempt him to do that. No, sir; if Mr. Sharon wants to go to the Senate let him contribute his share to the success of the Republican party. Let us put honest men into the Legislature (and we can do it) and let Mr. Sharon go alongside Mr. Tittle, Mr. Woodburn and Mr. Lewis and the other gentlemen and present his claims upon the party.

The Gazette answers the question like a good studious boy, while the News makes no reply. The Gazette accordingly "goes up" one and News drifts down toward the foot of the class. No one need fear that Sharon will buy his men at the primaries as he did before. The experience of 1879 has opened the eyes of both parties to the necessity of putting up better material for legislative honors. Two years since the Republican party displayed carelessness in its selections of legislative representatives because of its power and the surety of its success. The shameful betrayal of trust it was subjected to, will not soon be forgotten, and the lesson so dearly learned must be utilized. County conventions must see to it that candidates enjoy the confidence of the people. Business men and leading citizens must be persuaded of the duties they owe the State and spare the time to do her some service. This course will prove the most effective in ridding us of the dishonor of having Sharon's name even mentioned in our legislative hall save as a thing of the past.

The following are the estimates of the more ardent friends of the several Presidential candidates of the votes in the National Convention. The Blaine estimate: for Blaine 324 votes, for Grant 276, for Sherman 101, for Edmunds 32, for Washburne 11. The Grant estimate: For Grant 411, for Blaine 169, for Sherman 103, for Edmunds 25, for Washburne 13. The Sherman estimate gives him 227 votes. It still seems to be probable that Grant will be nominated unless the unit rule is broken.

The strike in Leadville is over and the three principal mines have resumed work at the old rates, $3 a day for ordinary miners and $4 for skilled workmen. The mines are all barricaded and fortified ready for an attack. With men in front of the barricaded working for nothing and fighting a crowd getting $20 a day apiece there is not any likelihood of a long siege.

The Blaine men have no doubt of electing their faction on the first ballot and the Grant men are equally certain of knocking all opponents out of time in one round, while John Sherman is confident of slipping in while the others are fighting and securing the nomination. All this gives the Windom men renewed hope that their nominee will be the dark horse.

GOOD APPOINTMENT.—Dr. S. L. Lee, of this city, has been appointed Surgeon General on the staff of his Excellency Governor Kinkaid, with the rank of Colonel. Besides being a staunch, unflinching Republican, and standing high in his profession, the Doctor is one of the most thoroughly respected gentlemen in this community.

FLOWERS FROM SAN JOSE.—The flowers used by the Grand Army of the Republic were contributed by the ladies of San Jose, and sent by Wells, Fargo & Co. free of charge. A list of the ladies' names was handed the Appeal for publication, but was crowded out of to-day's issue.

THE SCARCITY OF MATTER on the editorial page to-day is the result of giving up almost the entire paper to a full report of the Memorial Day exercises. The Appeal is the only paper in Carson to give a complete account of the observances of Sunday last.

THE Nevada Monthly for May is out. It is an excellent monthly and contains a characteristic story by Dan De Quille.

The coinage at the Carson Mint, for the month of May, amounts to $134,545.
